

EIGHT CHARACTER

An illustration of a man with a white beard, glasses, and a brown cap, wearing a light-colored jacket, sitting on a ledge and handing a fan of US dollar bills to a young boy. The boy has dark skin, curly hair, and is wearing a green jacket and a brown backpack. They are in an urban setting with buildings in the background.

THE PRODIGAL SON (Luke 15 vs 11-32)

THE PRODIGAL SON(Luke 15 vs 11-32)

Once upon a time, there was a father who had two sons. One day, the younger son asked his father for his share of the family's money. He wanted to go and have fun in the city, so his father gave him the money. The younger son went to the city and spent all his money on pleasures. But soon, he didn't have any money left

Every day, the old man would send his servants to wait by the roadside, hoping that his son would come back. The servants didn't understand why the old man was waiting for his son. They thought the son didn't deserve to come back after leaving and taking his share of the father's things.

But far away, the son had no money and he was starving. He worked on a pig farm and no one gave him anything to eat. He could not even eat from the food the pigs ate. He was very sad and missed his family. That's when he realized he made a mistake and wanted to go back home.

This story teaches us that even when we do something wrong, God is always waiting for us to come back to him. He loves us and forgives us, just like the father in the story.

HIS PROMISE; He loves us no matter what. As soon as come running back to him, he is ready to forgive us and welcome us home with open arms. So when we disobey God, or when we feel like we have wronged Him, Instead of running, we remember that he is waiting for us to come back, just like the father waited for his younger son.
